

Illegal Alien Crimes in North Carolina

An exclusive Social Contract report

BY DAVE GIBSON

In recent years, the number of crimes attributed to illegal aliens throughout the state of North Carolina has virtually exploded. Twenty-five years ago, one would be hard-pressed to find any mention of “immigration detainees” in any of the state’s 100 county jails. However, those same booking logs now seem to suggest the state is under foreign invasion.

Though the state’s capital of Raleigh is more than 1,500 miles from the border town of McAllen, Texas, so-called “sanctuary policies” and the lack of a meaningful E-Verify law, combined with the federal government’s refusal to enforce our immigration laws, have turned North Carolina into a “virtual border state.”

Unfortunately, the state is likely to be a bellwether for what lies ahead for the entire country if our elected representatives continue to turn a blind eye to the disastrous and often deadly consequences of maintaining an open border with Mexico.

While this report contains many startling statistics and gut-wrenching accounts of the human cost being wrought by illegal aliens on the citizens of North Carolina, the fact that over a ten-year span, more than 100 North Carolinians were killed by those here illegally, certainly stands out.

Between January 1, 2003 and December 31, 2013, illegal aliens killed 124 people across the state of North Carolina.

Most of these folks were killed in alcohol-fueled vehicle crashes, some were stabbed, beaten, or shot to death, and one was strangled to death while she was being raped.

- On June 3, 2010, Rene Pinto Melendez, 41, pleaded guilty to second-degree murder, second-degree rape, and larceny, in the grisly death of 48-year-old Patricia Denise Lamb.

Dave Gibson, a former legislative aide to a Virginia state senator, has been working as a freelance writer for many years. His work has been published in many newspapers and magazines, including the Washington Times.

Lamb died as a result of asphyxiation, according to the medical examiner.

After Melendez raped and strangled Lamb, he stole the victim’s jewelry and cell phone, which later helped convict the Honduran national.

Sampson County Superior Court Judge Ripley Rand sentenced Melendez to 25 years in prison.

While many Americans have simply accepted such crimes as a sad fact of life in states such as Texas or Arizona, most would likely be surprised to discover the mounting death toll in North Carolina, a state far removed from the Mexican border.

Unfortunately, due to our federal government’s unwillingness to actually secure the border and fully enforce our current immigration laws, the state of North Carolina has been transformed into a border state.

2003

Christopher Mesa, 2 (neglect/died) Winston-Salem – December 11; Roy Lee Bullard, Sr., 50 (shot) Hamlet – October 19; Sandra Williams n/a (bludgeoned in Tomball, TX) Charles Hanley, 75 (stabbed to death) Monroe – June; Morris Ray Heath, 56 (vehicular homicide) Deep Run – May 17; Christopher Parker Heath, 75 Deep Run – May 17.

One of those victims, William D’Ari Perry, was only 18 months old at the time of his death. On March 16, 2013, police in Charlotte arrested Oscar Francisco Garcia-Fuentes, 23, after he reportedly ran through a stoplight and rammed his 2001 Ford Mustang into another vehicle, resulting in the death of two people.

The Charlotte Observer reported:

The wreck occurred around 2:20 a.m., Saturday at the intersection of North Sharon Amity and Albemarle Road. Witnesses told police that the driver of a 2001 Ford Mustang “was accelerating through the intersection at a speed well above the speed limit” before the collision, a CMPD news release said.

Witnesses told police the Mustang sped through a stoplight without his headlights on and ran into the side of a sedan traveling on Albemarle Road. They said the man then fled [in] the Mustang.<sup>1</sup>

The driver of the other vehicle died at the scene and was identified as 26-year-old Tony Gabriel of Charlotte. The little boy’s mother, 24-year-old Brittany Massey, who was also hurt in the crash, was taken to Carolina’s Medical Center with non-life-threatening injuries.

In January 2011, Garcia-Fuentes was convicted of driving on a revoked license, for which he received probation and a suspended sentence.

Despite his illegal status in this country, the Mexican national was not picked up by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) for deportation. Given the fact that Charlotte is considered a ‘sanctuary city’ for illegal aliens, it is likely that Garcia-Fuentes’ immigration status was ignored by police.

Garcia-Fuentes was charged with two counts of involuntary manslaughter as well as three counts of felony hit-and-run, and booked into the Mecklenburg County Jail on an immigration detainer.

More recently, on March 8, 2014, Charlotte Mecklenburg police arrested Victor Alfonso-Manzano Mendez, 29, after he reportedly confessed to hitting a woman crossing a street in Charlotte. Rather than stopping to call for help, Mendez simply fled the grisly scene. The victim, 51-year-old Margaret Rutledge died, at the scene.

WFSA reported:

Investigators said the white Chevrolet Express Van was driving northbound on N. Tryon Street in the left lane when it struck Margaret Rutledge on the median and kept going, turning off on Old Concord Road.

Police said Rutledge moved to Charlotte from Florida three years ago. They said her sister in Florida is saddened to know her sister was killed by somebody and the person didn’t even stop.<sup>2</sup>

Mendez was charged with felony hit and run and driving without a license, and booked into the Mecklenburg County Jail on an immigration detainer.

One illegal alien has cost one county more than $100,000

In 2003, the Durham city council enacted Resolution 9046, which forbids police officers from inquiring into a suspect’s immigration status, unless they are believed to have committed a “serious crime,” such as rape, murder, etc. This policy has the full support not only of Mayor Bill Bell, but that of Durham Police Chief Jose Lopez as well. One inevitable result of such a policy is an influx of foreign criminals. So, how much is it costing Durham County?

According to the Durham County Budget Office, the daily cost of housing an inmate in the county jail is $98. What follows is the list of inmates being held in the Durham County Jail with ICE holds (as of May 7, 2014):

- Aguilar, Edwin Norberto-Valle – Date Booked: 5/6/2014; Charge: DUI; Time in Jail: 1 day; Cost: $98

- Rojas, Fidencio – Date Booked: 10/1/2013; Charge(s): Cruelty to Animals, First-Degree Sex Offense w/Child; Time in Jail: 218 days; Cost: $21,364
- Sanchez-Rios, Jose – Date Booked: 8/27/2013; Charge(s): Drug Trafficking; Time in Jail: 253 days; Cost: $24,794
- Torres, Francisco Santos – Date Booked: 7/14/2013; Charge(s): First-Degree Sex Offense w/Child; Time in Jail: 297 days; Cost: $29,106

- Zuniga, Guzman Arnold – Date Booked: 4/6/2014; Charge(s): Assault on a Female Time in Jail: 31 days; Cost: $3,038

It should be noted that these are not necessarily all of the illegal aliens currently being detained in the Durham County Jail, as it often takes several weeks or months for Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) to issue a hold, after the detainee is reported by sheriff's deputies. For instance, an ICE hold was not returned for 92 days for Jose Sanchez-Rios, after he was booked for drug trafficking.

Remember, these costs have been incurred by only one county in North Carolina. There are 100 counties within the Tarheel state.

As of November 30, 2013, there were a total of 1,634 foreign nationals with felony convictions being serving sentences within the state's prison system. Not surprisingly, the majority of them (1,142) are Mexican nationals. Illegal aliens from Central America make up the next largest group of state inmates, with 116 from Honduras; 62 from El Salvador; 43 from Guatemala, and eight from Nicaragua.

It should also be noted that due to the numerous so-called "sanctuary cities" within the state, many illegal aliens have simply been allowed to return to the streets after committing crimes, and even served sentences, without ever being reported for deportation. As a result there are currently thousands of these criminal aliens, whom state officials cannot locate.

As of December 2013, the state of North Carolina had 10,798 absconders from probation and/or parole, according to the North Carolina Department of Public Safety.

In other words, more than ten thousand criminals have gone into hiding, and are no longer being monitored by law enforcement.

Of those, 3,454 are "confirmed and probable illegal alien absconders," according to the citizen advocacy group known as North Carolinians for Immigration Reform and Enforcement (NCFIRE).<sup>3</sup>

A few examples of those now missing follow:

- Juan Jesus Gomez, Age: 19; Convicted of a weapons charge on 2/16/2012; Sentence: Community service, probation
- Ogilbio Hernandez-Benitez, Age: 18; Convicted of breaking and entering on 11/20/2012; Sentence: Probation

- Damian Augustin-Matias, Age: 21; Convicted of DUI (Level 2) on 06/09/2009; Sentence: Probation
- Luis Adan Flores, Age: 22; Convicted of operating a motor vehicle w/out a license, drug possession on 11/10/2008; Sentence: Probation
- Francisco Artur Funes-Chicas, Age: 22; Convicted of hit-and-run, resisting arrest, providing false information to police, operating a motor vehicle w/out a license on 05/19/2011; Sentence: Probation

In addition to the local sanctuary policies shielding illegal aliens from deportation, there is another reason why many of these criminals operate without any fear of the federal government.

In December 2012, the Obama administration quietly issued a memo which only allowed ICE Agents to issue a “hold,” if “the individual has three or more prior misdemeanor convictions.”

Many could have simply moved to another county within the state, or left North Carolina to undoubtedly prey on citizens in another corner of the country. The fact of the matter is, these criminals could be anywhere.

The toll taken on the state’s children

Unfortunately, as with any invasion of a foreign land, it is the children who suffer the most at the hands of an invading army. This massive, illegal incursion into North Carolina is no different, and has resulted in thousands of child sexual assaults at the hands of illegal aliens.

The citizen advocacy group known as NCFIRE compiled a list of illegal aliens charged with sex crimes against children (as of November 30, 2013), who remain in county jails throughout North Carolina.

Remember, the following is only a partial list, from a mere nine counties (there are a total of 100 counties in North Carolina):

Of course, any thorough examination of this matter would not be complete without examining the very first case in which an innocent child was not only raped, but killed as well, by a Mexican national — living and working in the state illegally.

On July 13, 1982, the body of 7-year-old April Lee Sweet was found several hours after she had gone missing from her grandparents' Alexander County home. The little girl had been stabbed in the neck and left naked from the waist down, her shorts and underwear lying next to her.

An autopsy confirmed that the rising second-grader had been raped. April had become the first North Carolinian to be hunted down, violated, and murdered by an illegal alien...Of course, over the next three decades, there would be more than a hundred to follow.

In the mid-morning, April's grandfather, Calvin Johnson, spoke to her for what would be the last time as he walked out of his home and joined the rest of his family to work their tobacco fields. While driving his pickup truck in the fields, he noticed a taxi coming down the road and the man riding in the backseat was a man he knew as "Richard Lopez," a migrant farm worker.

Lopez had actually worked for Johnson in the past, and Johnson even invited the man who spoke very little English into his home on a few occasions. This man, who took Johnson's granddaughter from him, would later be identified as Bernadino Zuniga.

Around noon, Johnson returned to the house, to find April missing. Panicked, he phoned the Alexander County Sheriff's Department, while his wife and the girl's parents continued searching for her.

Johnson told Sheriff Thomas E. Bebbber that he had seen "Lopez" in a cab, headed towards his property a few hours earlier. The sheriff issued a BOLO alert for a Mexican male "approximately 5 foot, 9, 155 pounds, wearing blue jeans, a blue or gray shirt."

As it turned out, the illegal alien took another cab to the bus station, after murdering April, and headed to Pine Bluff, Arkansas. He was taken into custody in Knoxville, Tennessee.

The arrest affidavit states:

At the police station in Knoxville, officers took hair and fingernail scrapings from the defendant. As defendant took down his trousers for a pubic hair sample, Detective Moyer noticed that defendant pulled both trousers and underpants down simultaneously. Later, having become suspicious, Detective Moyer asked to see defendant's undershorts. The shorts had blood on the front. This blood was later found to be consistent with that of the victim. Among the personal effects seized from defendant was a small photograph of April Sweet.<sup>4</sup>

Through an interpreter, Zuniga waived any objections to extradition and was immediately transported back to North Carolina. Upon arrival in Alexander County, he was charged with first-degree murder and rape.

In February 1985, Zuniga was tried and convicted of both charges, and received the death penalty for the murder, as well as a sentence of life imprisonment for the rape. However, the death sentence was later vacated, after his attorneys successfully argued that the Mexican national suffered from "mild to moderate mental retardation, with an intellectual age of seven," and was not capable of understanding his gruesome deeds.

During the lengthy appeals process (over 15 years), psychologist, Dr. Antonio Puente, testified for the defense that Zuniga was in possession of 56 IQ. Another psychologist later testified that Zuniga scored a 64 on an IQ test he administered.

In short, Zuniga will not be put to death for his savage act, but will spend the rest of his life behind bars, being financially supported by the taxpayers of North Carolina.

Today, the child killer resides among the general population in North Carolina's Central Prison in Raleigh. Since entering prison on Feb. 19, 1985, Zuniga has committed several infractions, including "theft" and "self injury."<sup>5</sup>

In May 2014, Zuniga turned 58 years old. Apparently, prisoner #0458590 is being treated quite well at Central Prison, which has a fully functioning hospital facility, complete with operating room and x-ray labs.

What follows are more examples of this ongoing assault on North Carolina's children by illegal aliens.

- In March 2012, Juan Martinez Hernandez, 35, made his first court appearance after being charged with four counts of statutory rape and two counts of taking indecent liberties with a child.

Hernandez was arrested after a 14-year-old girl who gave birth in her family's Charlotte apartment identified him as the baby's father.

According to a Charlotte-Mecklenburg police report, Hernandez "admitted to engaging in sexual intercourse with the victim on several occasions."

In July 2010, Hernandez was charged with a DUI and reckless driving and consequently identified through the Mecklenburg County Jail's 287g program as being in the country illegally.

He was deported back to Honduras three months later.

The Charlotte Observer reported that the illegal alien also had a prior history of sex crimes in South Carolina

Hernandez was booked into the Mecklenburg County Jail on an immigration detainer.

- In May 2012, on Friday, Luis Arturo Sanchez, 23, pleaded guilty in Brunswick County Superior Court to the first-degree rape of a 6-year-old girl in 2010.

Assistant District Attorney Meredith Everhart told the court that Sanchez confessed to raping the little girl once and attempting to on at least two other occasions.

Judge Ola Lewis sentenced Sanchez to 12 to 15 years behind bars.

Sanchez, who is in the country illegally, will be deported "only after he has served his sentence," according to a press release from the Brunswick County District Attorney's Office.

- July 2012, Luis Perez-Valencia, 34, pleaded guilty in Brunswick County Superior Court to the first-degree rape of an 11-year-old girl.

According to Assistant District Attorney Meredith Everhart, Perez-Valencia raped the young girl on two separate occasions in 2011 and attempted to do so a third time.

It was after one of those rapes that the victim became pregnant.

Everhart said: "The victim became pregnant as a result of intercourse with Perez-Valencia, and DNA results proved that he was the father."

Judge Thomas Lock sentenced Perez-Valencia to between 16 and 20 years in prison.

Everhart confirmed that Perez-Valencia is in the country illegally and that the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Agency placed a hold on him.

In October 2012, Harnett County sheriff's deputies arrested Jose Trinidad Soto Sanchez, 21, and Jose Juan Alvarez, 28, after they reportedly raped a 17-year-old girl and shot her multiple times.

The girl was discovered lying in the Cape Fear River near the North Carolina Highway 217 bridge near Erwin, bleeding and left for dead.

Sheriff Larry Rollins told WTVD:

They had abducted her from her house where she was babysitting her 3-year-old sister. From there we understand now she was taken to the river where she was sexually assaulted. After the sexual assault had taken place, she was shot three times.<sup>6</sup>

The victim, who was shot in the face, abdomen, and hand was initially taken by helicopter to Betsy Johnson Memorial Hospital in Dunn and later transferred to UNC Hospital in Chapel Hill.

Both Sanchez and Alvarez were charged with first-degree rape, first-degree kidnapping, and attempted murder, and booked into the Harnett County Detention Center on immigration detainees.

The two Mexican nationals lived together in Spring Lake.

- In June 2013, police in Statesville arrested Jose Miguel Flores-Lizcano, 40, after he reportedly raped a young woman in at a home on Forest Hollow Drive.

The victim, whom police describe as an acquaintance of her alleged attacker, was taken to a local hospital where an examination was performed.

Flores-Lizcano has been charged with second-degree rape. He was booked into the Iredell County Jail on an immigration detainee.

Though Statesville is located more than 1,200 miles from the Mexican border, the small town in Western North Carolina has been experiencing a great deal of crime at the hands of illegal aliens.

- In 2012, police charged Jose Angel Guzman, 33, with 13 counts of first degree rape, 13 counts of first degree sex offense and 25 counts of indecent liberties with a child.

WBTB reported:

Detectives had been investigating Guzman and interviewed several witnesses between March 10 and May 17, 2012.<sup>7</sup>

All of the charges stemmed from multiple sexual assaults on two little girls, according to the Iredell County Sheriff’s Office.

- In October 2013, Johnston County sheriff’s deputies arrested Abelardo Gordillo Rodriguez, 53, after he reportedly sexually assaulted a 23-month-old child in Smithfield.

Rodriguez lives in the same home as the victim.

The baby was taken to a local hospital for treatment. Rodriguez was charged with indecent liberties with a child and is currently being held at the Johnston County Jail on an immigration detainee.

- In October 2013, Victor Saravia Vasquez, 40, pleaded guilty to two counts of indecent liberties with a child and one count of misdemeanor secret peeping in Pender County Superior Court.

Judge W. Allen Cobb, then sentenced Vasquez to 26 to 32 months in prison.

Vasquez, who is in the country illegally, should be deported after completing his sentence.

WWAY reported:

The victim, who is developmentally disabled, was 15 years old when Vasquez first began forcing him to perform oral sex and later anal sex. The DA says he intimidated the victim and made him promise not to disclose the abuse.<sup>8</sup>

Vasquez lived with the boy’s family and actually shared a bedroom with the young victim.

The abuse took place between 2010 and 2011, according to prosecutors.

- In October 2013, police in Greenville arrested Edmundo Gonzalez-Cinta, 50, after he reportedly raped a young girl. Police released very few details about the crime, in order to protect the victim's identity.

Gonzalez-Cinta was charged with first degree child rape and booked into the Pitt County Detention Center on $500,000 bond as well as an immigration detainer.

Pitt County detention officers confirmed that Gonzalez-Cinta is in the country illegally.

The girl, Yoselin Carbajal, was reported missing by her parents on Saturday.

The pair were staying with a relative of Resendiz, according to police.

The Courier-Tribune reported:

Resendiz and Carbajal were reportedly in a relationship, officials said. She had not been injured and it appears she willingly accompanied Resendiz, they added.<sup>9</sup>

Resendiz was charged with abduction of a child and second-degree kidnapping, and held in the Decatur City Jail on an immigration detainer, while awaiting extradition to North Carolina.

The victim was placed into protective custody.

- In December 2013, Charlotte-Mecklenburg police arrested Jonathan Rubio, 28, after he reportedly raped a 13-year-old girl the night before.

Police were called to the victim's home after she told her parents that she spent the night with Rubio, according to court documents.

WBTB reported:

The young girl described the inside of Jonathan Rubio's English Hills Drive apartment to officers, according to the warrant, including his bedroom.

She was then taken to a Charlotte-area hospital, by her parents, for treatment and a sexual assault kit.<sup>10</sup>

When questioned, Rubio originally told investigators that he spent the night with his roommate.

However, the roommate told a different story.

Rubio was charged with statutory rape and indecent liberties with a child, and booked into the Mecklenburg County Jail on an immigration detainer.

- In December 2013, Jose Angel Guzman-Jimenez pleaded guilty in Iredell County Superior Court to raping two girls, ages 10 and 12.

Guzman-Jimenez was charged a year earlier, with sexually assaulting both victims on multiple occasions, according to court documents.

After accepting a plea agreement, Guzman-Jimenez entered guilty pleas on two counts each of first- degree rape of a child and first-degree sex offense with a child.

The Charlotte Observer reported:

Investigators interviewed the children at the Dove House Children's Advocacy Center in Statesville.<sup>11</sup>

- In December 2013, prosecutors in Harnett County charged Hector Fuentes Gonzalez, 54, with multiple child sex offenses after sexually explicit images with a young girl were reportedly found on his cellphone.

The images were discovered two months earlier, when Harnett County sheriff's deputies and Department of Homeland Security agents executed a search warrant at the suspect's home on West Church Street.

WTSB reported:

After an extensive investigation, Detective Byrd — a member of the national U.S. Department of Justice's organization, Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force — discovered the girl was only 13 years of age.<sup>12</sup>

Gonzalez was taken into custody following the search of his home and charged with felony cocaine trafficking, three counts of second-degree sexual exploitation of a minor and one felonious count of taking indecent liberties with a minor, and booked into the Harnett County Jail on an immigration detainer.

- In February 2014, police in Zebulon arrested Guadalupe Guillen-Martinez, 26, following an investigation that began in August.

Guillen-Martinez reportedly molested a 10-year-old girl and recorded hundreds of images, including several videos of the abuse.

The News & Observer reported:

The girl's cell phone held six videos of Guillen-Martinez and "approximately 533" pictures of the girl doing actions that Guillen-Martinez directed her to do, according to the request to search his apartment at 1616 Maplewood Lane in Greensboro.<sup>13</sup>

Guillen-Martinez was charged with six counts of first-degree sexual exploitation of a minor; four counts of second-degree sexual exploitation and three counts of taking indecent liberties with a child, and booked into the Wake County Detention Center on $100,000 bond, and an immigration detainer.

• In March 2014, Jorge Juarez-Lopez, 39, pleaded guilty in a Durham County courtroom to raping his live-in girlfriend's two young daughters.

The abuse began in 2012, when Juarez-Lopez drove the girls from Sacramento, Calif., to Durham, where their mother had found work at a Macy's department store.

While at a hotel the Mexican national raped the 11-year-old, as her 13-year-old sister took a shower.

Indy Week reported:

In Durham, Juarez-Lopez continued his abuse. He'd beckon the girls to a mattress downstairs after Anna left for work. Afterward, the girls sometimes used the bathroom to wash up. "Did you like it?" Juarez-Lopez asked once.

His crimes grew more brazen, as he began assaulting the girls while Anna was in the house. Standing in an upstairs hallway, he made the teenager perform oral sex on him while he peered down the stairs to watch out for Anna. "I have a surprise for you," he once instructed the 11-year-old: "Don't tell your mother."<sup>14</sup>

Eventually, the 13-year-old told a friend about the ongoing assaults, who, then in turn, told the girls' mother.

Juarez-Lopez was taken into custody on March 1, 2013.

Judge Robert Johnson sentenced Juarez-Lopez to two consecutive prison terms of 36 to 53 years.

Judge Johnson told the illegal alien:

By the time you serve the sentences I gave you you're going to be an old man.

Despite his illegal status in this country, Juarez-Lopez worked at a factory as well as a construction company in the Durham area.

Juarez-Lopez speaks no English and required a translator throughout the court proceedings.

• In March 2014, police in Wilson arrested Pablo Moreno Cruz, 51, after he reportedly exposed himself to a child inside the Walmart on Forest Hills Road.

The victim was 11 years old.

On March 9, around 6:45 p.m., the girl's parents called 911, after the Mexican national pulled down his pants, exposing his genitals in front of her, according to police.

What's the reason behind the epidemic of child sexual assaults?

The most troubling and telling reason behind the growing epidemic of child molestations at the hands of illegal aliens, may lie in the fact that the age of sexual consent throughout the majority of Mexico is 12 years of age.

Article 261 of Mexico's Federal Criminal Code states:

Whoever, without the purpose of reaching copulation, performs a sexual act on a person under 12 or on a person that has no capacity of understanding the meaning of the act or that for any reason cannot resist, or demands that the act is performed, will be punished with a term of 2 to 5 years in prison.<sup>16</sup>

In addition to Mexico City, the age of consent is 12 in the following Mexican states:

Aguascalientes, Baja California Sur, Campeche, Chiapas, Coahuila, Guanajuato, Guerrero, Hidalgo, Jalisco, Michoacan, Morelos, Oaxaca, Puebla, Queretaro, Quintana Roo, San Louis Potosi, Sinaloa, Sonora, Tabasco, Tamaulipas.

The age of consent is 15 in Mexico state, 13 in Yucatan and Zacatecas. The age of consent is actually listed as "puberty" in Nayarit and 14 in the seven remaining Mexican states.

Unfortunately, the culture of having sex with young girls is carried with many Mexican men as they cross into this country (illegally).

An example of this attitude can be found in Mexican national Diego Lopez-Mendez, who pleaded guilty in 2006 to sexually assaulting a 10-year-old West Virginia girl. Through an interpreter, he told the court: "In the pueblo where I grew up girls are usually married by 13 years old...I was unaware of the nature of the offense or that it was a bad crime."

In order to bring charges of rape in most Mexican states, the law basically requires that the girl prove that she is a virgin (the law states that only those who seduce "chaste and honest" girls shall be prosecuted), and that the charge of statutory rape be dropped if the rapist wishes to marry his victim.

Of course, when discussing the issue of illegal immigration, this dirty little secret is never talked about by our politicians, nor is the impact that such an attitude towards the abuse of children could have on this nation by offering amnesty to millions of Mexican nationals.

Patriots in the Tarheel State

This project would not have been possible without the tireless efforts of Maureen Wilson and James Johnson, both with the citizens’ advocacy group known as North Carolinians for Immigration Reform and Enforcement (NCFIRE). What follows is a recent interview with James Johnson, the co-founder of NCFIRE:

Q: How did you become interested in the issue of illegal immigration?

A: I was injured on the job in 2005. During the years of recovery from injuries, I became more and more aware of the illegal alien situation. It started slowly. First it was having to press “1” for English every time I called a doctor’s office, medical clinic, or drug store. Then I began noticing people in rehabilitation with an interpreter because they can’t speak English. It seemed everywhere you turned, stores had signs in English and Spanish and products were being labeled with both languages. I would see non-English-speaking people buying groceries with “food stamp cards” and paying for their alcohol with wads of cash. I started to take notice of the crimes by non-English-speaking individuals that were being reported on the news or in the newspapers.

The tipping point was when my son’s college professor Mr. Lewis M. Fetterman Jr., was killed in a car accident by an illegal alien in Newton Grove, N.C. Mr. Fetterman and his wife were simply coming home from a weekend at the beach, when an intoxicated individual slammed into them with his car. He and Mr. Fetterman were killed instantly. Mrs. Fetterman remains widowed and permanently disabled as a result of the crash. The individual had no license and no insurance and it was later determined that he was here illegally.

I got involved with the FIRE Coalition and became the southeastern regional coordinator.

My duty was to organize nine southeastern states into individual illegal immigration fighting organizations, appointing the individual state representatives, compiling the email databases, and selecting regional leaders within each state so that they would have immediate contact with as many citizens in the state as possible concerning illegal immigration. It took me a little over a year and a half to get all the states organized and up and running.

While doing so, it became apparent to me that no one was looking out for N.C., so when my task was complete with the FIRE Coalition, I resigned my position and started NCFIRE, in 2007.

It started with just me, my home PC, and the few email addresses I had at the time. In 7 years, it has grown to over 6,000 N.C. citizen members and daily contact with 30-40 thousand N.C. citizens through our various social media outlets. It has all been by word-of-mouth. We have not done any advertising.

I started NCFIRE to try to do something to stop the needless killing of N.C. citizens and the wasteful spending of our tax dollars as a result of illegal aliens.

Q: What is your group’s main goal?

A: Our objective is to put enough pressure on the N.C. General Assembly members to enact and enforce illegal immigration laws at the state level.

WHO WE ARE:

We are a statewide 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that is dedicated to immigration enforcement. Our organization represents the citizens’ interest in stopping the flood of illegal aliens into North Carolina. We simply can’t afford illegal aliens’ tremendous costs any longer.

LEFT: Former North Carolina State Senator Thom Goolsby, James Johnson, co-founder and president of North Carolinians for Immigration Reform & Enforcement (NCFIRE), and Curtis Wright, talk show host, “Curtis Wright on the Beat.” RIGHT: NCFIRE Co-Founder and President James Johnson addressed an August 11, 2012, conference on “the Impact of Illegal Immigration on Voter Integrity, Voter I.D., and Illegal Immigrant Advocacy” at the Schwartz Center, Cape Fear Community College.

The damage incurred, the crimes, costs, and physical and emotional damage these people are causing, are just too great.

WHAT WE BELIEVE:

We support limiting our jobs and resources to the citizens of North Carolina and we believe that it is time for our Legislators to adhere to their oath of office, “to support the Constitution of the United States; and to be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina” by passing the appropriate legislation to curtail the influx of illegal aliens into our state.

WHAT WE DO:

We seek to educate those who turn a blind eye to the many costly and destructive consequences of illegal immigration.

OUR POSITION:

1. Mandate English as the official language of N.C.
2. Require a valid North Carolina photo ID to vote in N.C.
3. Require ALL companies (public and private), doing business in North Carolina, to become E-Verify compliant.
4. Mandate stricter punishments for hiring illegal aliens in N.C.
5. Enact an N.C. version of SB1070 to document proof of legal entry and the right to be within N.C. borders.
6. Deny enrollment of illegal aliens to North Carolina colleges and universities.
7. Eliminate taxpayer funding to N.C. colleges and universities that allow illegal aliens to enroll.
8. Restrict foreign consulate services to consulate property ONLY.
9. Remove the Mexican Matricula Consular card as proof of North Carolina residency from N.C. driver’s license documentation.
10. Deny use of Mexican Matricula Consular cards as proof of identification.
11. Prohibit the use of all foreign ID cards for any taxpayer funded services or civic activities.
12. Deny taxpayer funding to sanctuary cities and counties in North Carolina.
13. Require proof of citizenship and residency for all N.C. social welfare eligibility.
14. Cut taxpayer funding to all LaRaza-based non-profit organizations in North Carolina that provide benefits to illegal aliens.
15. End taxpayer funding of all North Carolina ethnic councils.

In conclusion, this project has merely scratched the surface of the unfolding disaster now hitting the state of North Carolina. Though both houses of the state legislature and governorship have been in the hands of Republicans for some time now, the state is basically being run by the Chamber of Commerce; as such, the massive influx of cheap, illegal labor has been encouraged and the resulting crime victims are likely viewed as simply “the cost of doing business.”

Given all of the aforementioned data, it is little wonder that the federal government refuses to keep statistics on the number and nature of crimes committed by those here illegally, and both parties share the blame for this. Rep. Walter Jones (R-N.C.) has repeatedly introduced the Illegal Alien Crime Reporting Act, which would force the government to keep an accurate accounting of the crimes being committed by foreign nationals on an annual basis. However, each year it was introduced, it failed to make it out of committee.<sup>17</sup> ■

By Jean Raspail

The Social Contract Press

quality softcover, 316pp., $13.50

"In 1974 the French novelist Jean Raspail published a remarkable book called The Camp of the Saints both artistically and politically the equal of George Orwell's 1984. This book has been unjustly ignored, precisely because it sticks up for what can be called "high" Western civilization.... Dismissed by some as merely fantasy, Raspail's nightmare vision of a Third World invasion of the Western world has become today's reality...."

—Jeffery Hart, Professor of English, Dartmouth College, and Senior Editor, National Review

"A great novel"

—William F. Buckley, Jr.

"Apocalyptic fiction...bilious tirade"

—Time

"Audacious and imaginative fiction"

—The San Francisco Chronicle

"This is an apocalyptic novel, a philosophical dissection of the erosion of Western civilization.... This book will succeed in shocking and challenging the complacent contemporary mind"

—Library Journal

"Remarkable...riveting"

—Publishers' Weekly

"The liberal reviewers killed it with ridicule or with silence. The plot was intolerable to them...our children and grandchildren may soon discover that Jean Raspail wrote not fiction, but fact.... One of the most chilling books of this generation...."

—James J. Kilpatrick, Columnist

"A brilliant landscape of apocalypse, without a doubt the strongest book of the season.... Sensational"

"No reader will remain unaffected by the questions it raises"

—Baltimore Sun

"Racist fantasy"

—The radical Southern Poverty Law Center
